

BAYER-BIG TEN ALKA-ROCKET CHALLENGE SUBMISSION FORM

Bayer is partnering with the Big Ten Conference to launch the world's highest Alka-Rocket. The Challenge is open exclusively to teams of students from each of the 14 universities in the Big Ten Conference. Teams have until September 29, 2017 to register and submit their design to the Challenge judges who will determine the finalists based on design, execution and creativity. On November 8th, the four finalist teams will gather at the Houston Space Center, in Houston, Texas, to launch their rockets to determine the highest launch of the Alka-Rocket.

For more details, please see the official rules which are located at www.alkarocketchallenge.com.

HOW TO ENTER THE CHALLENGE:

Create a video that showcases a rocket that you and/or your team has designed and built and why you are interested in competing in the Bayer-Big Ten Alka-Rocket Challenge. Your rocket must follow the "Requirements of Submissions" outlined in the official rules found at: www.alkarocketchallenge.com.

The minimum requirement for your submission is one (1) video, however you may include up to 15 images of your rocket. Once this application form and video are complete, send an email with this form and your video attached, to the following email address:
